AUGUSTA, GA

PROFILE

Augusta, Georgia

As the second-oldest and second-largest (500,000) community in the state, the Greater Augusta area is a cultural hotbed of rich history and modern amenities, with a classic Southern twist. Take time to explore our unique dining, entertainment, historic and recreation options. The event owner and guests will find impressive sites in Augusta, as well as the neighboring areas of North Augusta and Columbia County.

Augusta Sports Council

The Augusta Sports Council (ASC) is an independent 501(c)3 organization with a professional staff charged with securing, creating, and managing sporting events and activities of all skill levels which will beneficially impact the community. Organizational success is largely due to inclusive partnerships with local sport bodies, businesses, and government agencies.

For the Record

- The Augusta area is home to several sport governing bodies including the National Barrel Horse Association, the Professional Disc Golf Association, and the Atlantic Coast Cutting Horse Association.
- The ASC owns the Augusta Half Marathon Festival, presented each October including a half marathon, 5K run, fun runs, a shoe recycling program and a health and fitness EXPO.
- Play for Life clinics benefiting the local community are presented in partnership with events.
- More than 2,000 student and adult athletes have been honored with G.A.M.E.S. Medals.
- The ASC presents the College Basketball Tip Off each fall featuring the Bobby Roberts Award and NCAA Division-I coaches from Georgia and South Carolina.
- Sports tourism is an economic engine for the city, quietly generating tens of millions of dollars each year through sales tax contributions, beverage taxes and hotel taxes.

Ray Guy Award

The Augusta Sports Council presented the inaugural Ray Guy Award in December 2000. Joining the ranks of such national college football awards as the Heisman Trophy and the Doak Walker Award, the Ray Guy Award honors the nation's best collegiate punter. Each year the award is presented live on the ESPN College Football Awards Show broadcast from Orlando, Florida.

American Football Kicking Hall of Fame

The American Football Kicking Hall of Fame was created to recognize individuals who excelled as kickers, to educate the public on the historic contributions of the kicking game, to promote the advancement of kickers as strategic playmakers, and to provide an arena to honor the players who put the "special" in special teams. Through a partnership with Prokicker.com, presenter of the Hall of Fame, the inductees are honored during a ceremony in Augusta each year during the All-Area Football Banquet.
